Enhanced CPF Housing Grant for Families

< Flat,
Grant, and Loan Eligibility

If you are a first-timer applicant, you may be eligible for the Enhanced CPF Housing Grant (EHG) to help with your new or resale flat purchase.

Application for an HDB Flat Eligibility (HFE) Letter	▼	From 20 August 2024, first-timer families may qualify for an EHG of up to $120,000, while a couple comprising a first-timer and second-timer may qualify for an EHG (Singles) of up to $60,000. If you are buying a resale flat, you must first qualify for the CPF Housing Grants for resale flats (Families) before you may be eligible for the EHG. You may also apply for the Proximity Housing Grant (PHG) (Families) if you meet the eligibility conditions.
Couples and Families	^
Enhanced CPF Housing Grant		Apply for an HDB Flat Eligibility (HFE) letter via the HDB Flat Portal for a holistic understanding of your housing and financing options before you embark on your home buying journey. It will inform you upfront of your eligibility to buy a new or resale flat, as well as the amount of CPF housing grants and HDB housing loan you are eligible for.

Core family nucleus

A household's eligibility for housing subsidies and HDB housing loan is assessed based on the core family nucleus, which is formed by the core member(s). Core members refer to the applicant(s) and occupier(s) in an HFE letter application who enable the household to qualify for a flat purchase under an eligibility scheme. All core members must remain in the flat application, and physically reside in the flat during the

Ownership/ interest in property in	Interest or ownership in a property

Criteria	Details
Singapore or overseas other than HDB flat	You are considered to own or have an interest in a property if you and/ or your spouse^[1] have acquired a property through purchase or when it is: • Acquired by gift • Inherited as a beneficiary under a will or from the Intestate Succession Act • Owned, acquired, or disposed of through nominees • Acquired by holding on trust for another person/ entity • Held on trust with you and/ or your spouse as the beneficiary [1] Refers to both current and late spouse, if any. The conditions on ownership/ interest in private residential and non-residential property apply to all local and overseas properties that are completed or uncompleted, and include but are not limited to the following:

Criteria	Details
	Private residential property	Non-residential property

Criteria	Details
	Private residential property	Non-residential property
	A house, building, land that is under a residential land zoning (including land with multiple land zoning^[2]), Executive Condominium (EC) unit, privatised HUDC flat, mixed use development^[3], and any land without zoning. [2] E.g. residential with commercial at 1st storey or commercial and residential zoning. [3] E.g. properties with a residential component, such as HDB shop with living quarters or shophouse.	A property under a non-residential land zoning and/ or the permitted use does not include housing. This may include commercial properties (e.g. shops or offices), industrial properties, market/ hawker stalls, or vacant/ plantation/ agricultural land.

Criteria	Details
	Private residential property	Non-residential property
	Private residential property All applicants and occupiers listed in the HFE letter application: • Must not own or have an interest in any local or overseas private residential property; and • Must not have disposed of any private residential property in the last 30 months, from the legal completion date, before the HFE letter application. For example, if the private residential property was disposed of on 1 July 2024, based on the legal completion date of disposal, you may apply for an HFE letter to buy a flat from HDB, a resale Plus or Prime^[4] flat, or a resale unclassified^[5]/ Standard flat with CPF housing grant(s), or take an HDB housing loan on or after 1 January 2027.

Criteria	Details
	[4] Prime flats include Prime Location Public Housing (PLH) flats sold before October 2024 sales exercise. The eligibility criteria for resale Prime flats follow the prevailing BTO eligibility criteria. [5] Unclassified resale flats refer to flats sold before October 2024 sales exercise and not classified as Standard, Plus or Prime. Non-residential property All applicants and occupiers listed in the HFE letter application can, as a household, own or have an interest in up to 1 non-residential property^[6] at HFE letter application, if they wish to buy a flat from HDB, a resale Plus/ Prime flat, or a resale unclassified/ Standard flat with CPF housing grant(s). If applicants and occupiers own or have an interest in more than 1 non-residential property, they must have disposed of the other non-residential properties at least 30 months (counted from the legal completion date of the disposal of the interest) applying for an HFE letter. [6] This is regardless of the share of ownership in the non-residential property. If the applicants and occupiers own the same non-residential property, the household is considered as owning 1 non-residential property.

Amount	The amount is based on the average gross monthly household income assessed over the months worked during the 12-month period, which ends 2 months preceding the month of the HFE letter application. The incomes of all working persons in the household (all applicants and occupiers) are included in the assessment. Households with lower household incomes will receive a bigger grant amount. Please refer to the average monthly household income and corresponding EHG amount (PDF, 198KB).
Distribution and usage of EHG	If your household is eligible for the EHG, first-timer SC and SPR members (if any) of the core family nucleus will receive the grant based on their eligible share. It will be credited into their CPF Ordinary Accounts. The EHG received by core applicants can be used to: • Offset the purchase price of the flat • Reduce the housing loan required for the flat purchase Occupiers will not be able to use their CPF savings (including any housing grants received) for the flat purchase, servicing of the housing loan, etc.
